Boy's & Girl's Club Open House A Big Success

Pictures sometimes convey more than words can. Look at the joy on the faces of our future American leaders as they enjoyed the many splendid opportunities for fun, recreation, and development offered by the Boys' Club in the Open House held from noon until 4:30 p.m., on Saturday, June 11th. Your reporter often reflects on the cliche, "America's Future is Bright". He sees that brightness in the eyes of America's youth.

NAACP Board Rejects Chairman's "Confidential Report", Strips Her Of Power; Repeats Resignation Demand

CHICAGO--Forty-nine of the 54 members of the NAACP National Board of Directors who attended a special meeting here rejected the "confidential report" from the Association's Chairperson, Margaret Bush Wilson, as "sour grapes." The board then delegated all the powers of the chair of the nation's oldest and largest civil rights organization to the NAACP Vice Chairman, Kelly Alexander, Sr., a Charlotte, N.C., businessman.

Mrs. Wilson, a St. Louis, Mo., attorney, read the report to the Board in an effort to explain why she, acting on her own and without the advice and counsel of other board members, suspended the Association's Executive Director, Benjamin L. Hooks, on May 18, 1983.

Today's actoin was taken, the Board said, in a statement following the meeting, because:

"The Chairman of the Board has made it clear that she does not intend to honor the request of the Board to resign. Since a majori ty of the board no longer has confidence in the Chairman, and since they are of the opinion that her recent statements and conduct are inimical to the best interests of the NAACP, theBoard invoked the provisions of ARTICLE IX, SECTION 7, of the NAACP Constitution and has, effective today, delegated all of the power of the Chairman of the Board to the Vice Chairman, for the time being."

"The Board intends to resolve as expeditious ly as possible the question of NAACP leadership. In this period of recession, all civil rights or ganizations have suffered, and , to that end, a hearing will be held as expeditiously as possi ble to consider removal of the Chairman of the Board since she has refused to resign.

The Board feels this will enable the NAACP leadership to devote their energies and experi ence exclusively to the business of civil rights."

Senior Citizen Enjoying Themselves On Super Day

A beautiful, sunny day and a well-planned calendar of events combined on Saturday, June 11th for perhaps the most memorable occasion of the spring-approaching summer season to many citizens and seniors of the Tacoma area.

There were glowing tributes to the Country Western band from the Naval Station in Seattle for their morning entertainment.

Your Facts reporter was privileged to enjoy and photograph exceptionally well-done square and round dance demonstrations early in the afternoon under the direction of Norbert Paul, well-known local caller and instructor, and a martial arts Karate demonstration by Earl Squalls and his group. Enjoyable music follow ed, by the well-known, weekly-appearing "Wright-ON" senior band.

Many seniors of the area who are active in the many local senior programs enjoyed the day in our lovely downtown park Quite a number in the crowd attend regularly at the South Park Community Hall senior dances.

Booths offering art and craft work and tasty foodstuffs were in abundance.

ADVERTISE in THE TACOMA Facts

HAVE YOU BELIEVED OUR REPORT?
Series #1 part 13
Isaiah 53rd chapter 1st & 2nd verses. Who hath believed our report and to whome is the arm of the Lord revealed?
For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground He hath no form nor comiliness: and when we shall see him, ther is no beauty that we should desire him.

ARE YOU THE GREEDY ONE?
GOD WATCHMAN IS ON THE GATE.
Isaiah 56th chapter,1st thru 5th verses. Thus said the Lord, Keep ye judgement, and do justic,for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.
Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from poluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing evil.
Neither let the son of the stranger, that hath joined himself to the Lord,speak, saying, The Lord hath utterly separated me from his people: Neither let the eunuch say, Behold, Iam a dry tree.
For thus said the Lord unto the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and take hold of my covenant; Even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.

The History Of Shiloh Baptist Church

The Shiloh Baptist Church was organized on Thursday night, July 23, 1953 at 7:30 p.m. in the Holy Communion Episcopal Parish House at 1407 South "I" Street. Two concerned Christian workers met with Chaplain E.H. Hankerson, who as serving as Base Chaplain at McChord Air Force Base to talk with him about organizing a church. This was done and serving as council were: Rev. Dr. F.W. Penick, People's Institutional Baptist Church, Seattle; REv. Norman Mitchell, Goodwill Baptist Church, Seattle; Rev. Benjamin F. Davis, Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Seattle; Rev. Cornelius Brown, and Rev. Horton of Seattle.
A name was selected on the same night of the newly organized congregation. The name chosen was Shiloh Baptist Church, and the corporation and By-laws were also drawn up. This meeting was carried out unanimously.
The church held its first meeting Sunday, July 26th at 1702 South "K" Street at the Masonic Hall. The Sunday School opened at 9:30 a.m. with 26 children and 24 adults present. The morning worship was conducted by Rev. Cornelius Brown with 37 present. The first offering was $59.40.
On July 26, at 7:30 p.m., the group met back at the Holy Communion Episcopal Parish House. The second service was conducted by Chaplain E.H. Hankerson, with 30 persons present. The offering was $10.00. The church voted unanimously to have Chaplain Hankerson, who was stationed at McChord, to serve as Spiritual Advisor until such time the church would call for a pastor.
By July 27, 1953, the church membership had grown to 30. August 9, the congregation agreed to rent a church and Parish House at 1307-09 South "I" for $60.00 a month. The property, therefore, became Shiloh's first home and place for worship. The church began to grow and auxiliaries were organized. On July 4, 1954, the property at 1307-09 South "I" was purchased for $12,000 with a down payment of $3,000. Upon the transfer of Chaplain Hankerson from McChord to Germany, it left the church without a Spiritual Advisor.
The church led to call a pastor, and on December 31, 1954, Rev. E.S. Brazill, who at the time was Pastor of the Sinclair Baptist Church in Bremerton, Washington. Rev. Brazill accepted the call to serve as Shiloh's first Pastor. Rev. Brazill assumed his duties as Pastor, officially on Easter Sunday, April 10, 1955.

Choctaw Indian A Featured Speaker For Racial Unity In Bahai Faith Program At Public Library

Phil Lucas was one of the featured speakers on Saturday afternoon, June 11th, as he explained how for thousands of years our American Indians have prayed in ceremonial appeal to the 'The Great Spirit" for racial unity and fellowship. Phil is president of an Issaquah Film Company, a competent aircraft pilot, silversmith, actor and professional musician.
He was dressed in modern tribal costume of basic black with red, white, and yellow streamer symbolizing the four races.
The very interesting and thought-provoking program was kicked off with the introduction and talk of Gerry Lew, representing the yellow race. He reflected on how his children, being reared in a white society, sometimes expressed shame for the color of their race, when they should have been able to comprehend the wonderful heritage of their entitlement; they will, given time. Gerry is a consultant and systems planner for Weyerhaueser Company, a graduate of the University of Washington.
Reggie Newkirk, Western Regional Director of the Human Rights Commission of Canada, ws the final featured speaker on the program, regrettably, the paucity of time and another commitment preclude your Facts reporter's enjoyment of Reggie's talk and the opportunity to shake a sophisticated black hand with an admiring white one.
It was an interesting coincidence that there was not a program speaker to represent the white race in the plea for human fellowship under GOD.

Fireworks Available

Fireworks will be legally available at stands throughout Washington beginning at noon, June 28. Legal sales will continue through noon, July 6. Parents should be extra careful and supervise their youngsters' pur chases and use of fireworks, if they choose to use fireworks during this holiday season, acording to State Insurance Commissioner/Fire Marshal Dick Marquardt.

The Commissioner also urged people to follow these fireworks safety tips: Always have an adult present to supervise fireworks use. Light fireworks outdoors in a clear area, away fropm brush, dry grasses, and similar material. NOTE: It is illegal to light fire works on state-protected lands---"forest, brush, range, or grain areas." It is also illegal to use fireworks in national parks.

Keep a bucket of water or sprinkling hose handy for emergencies. When a firework item fails, do not try to relight it. Soak it in water and throw it in the garbage. Do not take fireworks apart and try to use the powder for some other purpose. Do not alter a firework item. Light fireworks one at a time and be sure everyone in the area knows you are lighting fireworks. Never give fire works to small children. Do not discharge fireworks around pets.

Work Therapy

For people with severe mental illness, moving from hospital treatment back into the community is difficult at best. Since 1969, Conbela, a private non-profit Seattle agency, has ben helping such people do more with their lives than simply survive.

Conbela grew out of the closing of some wards at Northern State Hospital in the late 1960's. Several Seattle residents and former hospital staff found needed community support to establish what was then a group home treat ment facility. Initially located in Seattle's Fremont district, Convela leter was moved to its present Elliott Avenue location near the waterfront. The group homes were sold in 1975.

Today, Conbela continues to be work orient ed, providing pre-vocational and vocational adjustment training for mentally ill persons.

Conbela administrators, such as executive director Geary Britton-Simmons, believe that work itself is therapeutic. Work programs include several industrial enclaves whereby local industries contract with Conbela to perform specific services on their premises, using Conbela trainees. Conbela runs several of its own industries, including a large paper recycling facility, bulk mailing, and packaging services, and screen printing. In addition to training persons, there industries provide about 60% of Conbela's revenue; the rest comes rom the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, the Division of Mental Health, and community support.

JEREMIAH
CHAPTER 10

HEAR ye the word which the Lord speaketh unto you, O house of Isreal: Thus saith the Lord learn not the way of the heathen, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them.

For the customs of the people are vain: for one cutteth a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman, with the axe.

They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.

They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good.

forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O Lord; thou art great, and thy name is great in might.

Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their king doms, there is none like unto thee.

But they are altoget her brutish and foolish: the stock is a doctrine of vanities.

Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from U-phaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing: they are all the work of cunning men.

But the Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king:at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide his indignation.

This shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish from the earth, and from under these heavens.

He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion.

We welcome news of your church and civic events.

Said tennis courts would be paid for as part of this project by Pierce Transit.
